Don’t forget to ask for a proof that you paid the rent, you will need it to open a bank account, buy your annual transport pass, receive a housing aid...

YOUR DEPARTURE

INSURANCE

HOME INSURANCE

When you rent a room, it is mandatory to insure it. You can find some advice here: https://access.ciup.fr

HEALTH INSURANCE

If you are employed by a French institution, you will be automatically covered by the French social health insurance. Once you have joined the French social security system, you will receive a certificate with your personal data (attestation Vitale) and your health insurance card carte Vitale. If you have not received your carte Vitale, the doctor will hand you a form called feuille de soins. You should send this form to your health insurance fund (CPAM) to seek reimbursement.

If you remain employed by your home country’s institution,
• within Europe: you need a European health insurance card.

• for non-Europeans: you will have to subscribe a private health insurance. You must have a health coverage that covers medical expenses, hospitalization, surgical interventions and repatriation and a civil liability insurance from the first day you arrive in France;

MAKE A DOCTOR’S APPOINTMENT

If you need to see a doctor whilst you are staying in France, there are online platforms like Doctolib (https://www.doctolib.fr/) where you can easily make an appointment with the doctor of your choice.

However, be careful because French general practitioners and specialists are classified in sectors:

• Sector 1 practitioners have fixed prices for the consultations. These prices are set and are usually cheaper

• Sector 2 practitioners are free to charge their own fees, the price for a consultation may be more expensive.

To move around the Paris region, the RATP transport system offers various options (Buses, metro, RER and tramway).
You can buy single tickets (starting at 1.90€), tickets for the day, a week etc.
You can buy these tickets at counters in metro/RER stations. Be careful when you travel to/from the airport - you cannot use a regular ticket.

You can also subscribe to the Navigo annual pass. https://www.ratp.fr
It costs around 700€ per year. If you are employed by a French institution, your employer will reimburse 50% of your monthly/annual pass. In order to subscribe to Navigo you will need to present:
